CHARLES-TOWN

CHARLESTOWN, October 14.

OUR last Advices from New York, by Capt. [illegible] are, That on the 5th of [illegible] General Winslow was so far [illegible] in a Sloop of 90 Tons, came [illegible] Capt. Smith, with 18 Swivel Guns, a [illegible] 4 brass Field Pieces, and 3 other Sloops [illegible] mounting 10 Swivels each, [illegible] to attack the French from [illegible] Tionderoga; that he was to be joined on the [illegible] by 400 more Men in Whale Boats; that a Trench, 12 Feet deep and 10 wide, was made round the whole Camp, [illegible] several Royal Cannon [illegible] the Trenches in Case of an Attack, and great Plenty of all Necessaries in the Army: But we can't hear with any Certainty that General Winslow is [illegible] set off.—That the Accounts from Oswego were more favourable than those hitherto published (not with Regard to the Behaviour of our People, but of the French), viz. That some white [illegible], who went from Albany to reconnoitre about and get a View of Oswego, (not being frightened by a [illegible]) lay there two Nights, found the Forts and Houses entirely demolished, and every Thing that could be of Service to the Enemy carried away, but no Signs of Murder or Massacre, only 3 Graves, and [illegible] very handsomely done up, one of which in particular they judged to be Col. Mercer's: That, besides the vast Store of Provisions lodged there, there was about £. 30 000 Sterling, for the Pay of the Garrison and Troops that were designed to be employed on that Side: That the Besiegers were but little superior to the Besieged, and had no other Cannon than what they got at Fort Ontario: That as soon as Col. Mercer was Killed, Lieut. Col. Littlehales (not [illegible]) immediately ordered the Place to be surrendered, no more than [illegible] Men of the whole Garrison being then killed or wounded: That Capt. B——y [illegible] behaved [illegible], not firing one Gun from his Vessel at the Enemy.—That on the 5th of Sept. a Sermon was delivered from a Pulpit in Boston from Esther vii. last Clause of the 4th Verse, "For we are sold, I and my People, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish." Words that might easily be applied, if they were found in a Speech from a Throne.—That some of the New York Privateers were already returned from their Cruizes, with good Success, viz. The Harlequin, Capt. Treton, with a large Schooner bound for Hispaniola, which had also engaged a French [illegible] 18 Guns: The Prince George, Capt. King, with a Ship and a Snow for Bourdeaux; who had also taken a [illegible] for [illegible]: And [illegible] sugars, Coffee, Cotton, &c.—That a French Privateer had taken and carried 17 English fishing Schooners into Louisbourg.—That the Reports of Commodore Holmes's having taken a French Man of War, had prov'd a [illegible] Fisherman's News.—That among other English Vessels, the following have been taken by French Men of War, and carried into Cape François, viz.

The Swallow, Lewis, from Honduras for Bristol.
The Fox, [illegible], from Leogane.
The Sundry, Reed, from Cork, for St Kitt's.
The Warren, Butterfield, from Georgia for St. Croix.
The [illegible] Nancy, Allison, from London for Gambia.
The Mary Anne, [illegible].
The Polly, Carpenter, and
The Phoenix, Hix, from Rhode Island for Jamaica.
The Hazard, Brown, from this Port for Ditto.
The William, Perkins, from N England for Ditto.

That the English Prisoners at the Cape, are all confined in a Prison, quite Naked: And, that 4 large Dutch Ships were arrived there, with a vast Quantity of [illegible] Stores; and some grand Expedition was on Foot. [illegible] a great deal of what is transacted in Europe [illegible] the British Navy formidable [illegible] That a French [illegible] before Minorca, and [illegible] at the same Time as the Med[illegible] French Men of War there [illegible] that there are not English Men of War [illegible] to be bottl'd up by Frenchmen [illegible] that any French [illegible] Cape François, Louisbourg and Quebec, [illegible] of the Loss of Fort [illegible] Oswego [illegible] French Fleets being in the Mediter[illegible] [illegible] Advices to the [illegible] [illegible] from Cumberland County, had given them a great Blow on the 8th of last Month, by marching to, and attacking their Town of Kittaning, on the Ohio, about 25 Miles from Fort Du-Quesne, and burning it about their Ears: In this Action, near 40 Indians were killed, among them their famous Capt. Jacobs, their Town entirely destroyed, and in it a Store of Ammunition for a 10 Year's War with a large Present of Goods they had lately received from the French, and 11 English Prisoners retaken; Col. Armstrong, Capt. Mercer, Ensign Potter, and 11 private Men, were wounded; Lieut. Hogg, and 15 private Men killed.—And that, as Sir William Johnson, with the Six Nations, and the Government of Pennsylvania, were still labouring to bring about an Accommodation with the Susquehanna Indians, a Proclamation was issued by Governor Denny, for a farther Suspension of Hostilities on the East Side of Susquehanna River till the 10th Instant.

We have also Advices from Halifax, to the 3d ult. That several small French Prizes had lately been brought in there: That they had fitted, and were fitting out, 6 Privateers: And, that Capt. Hood, in His Majesty's Snow Jamaica, had taken a Schooner from Pisquataqua, one Richard Kelt[illegible] Master, within 3 Leagues of Louisbourg and standing in, by her Papers bound for Boston with Lumber, which had been somehow strangely metamorphosed into Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, and Provisions.

From Maryland, that they are fitting out a Ship there for a Privateer, of 26 Carriage and 20 Swivel Guns, to be commanded by Capt. Edw. Stott. And,

From Virginia, that 100 Cherokee's were daily expected there, to join in the Defence of the Frontiers, and to annoy the French.

Letters from Bermuda advise, that they have had some hard Gales of Wind there, which had destroyed most of the little Provisions they made: That on the 8th ult. Capt. Nathaniel Dennis, in a large Snow from Philadelphia, for Antigua, was cast away on their Rocks, and on the 11th, a Dutch Brigantine from Eustatia for Holland only the Boatswain and a Negro saved: And that on the 20th Capt. Josiah Hutchinson, in a Sloop from this Port for Antigua, had put in there, having lost her Mast, Boom and Bowsprit.

About 7 Weeks ago, the Sloop Elizabeth, John Smith Master, of and for New York, from the Bay of Honduras, foundered in the Gulph of Florida: The Crew got to St Katherine's in Georgia, in 4 Days, whence one of the Men is come, and gives this Account.

Monday last put in here, for Water and Sails, the Snow Hope, Christopher Brook, Master, from Jamaica [illegible] Days before spoke with the [illegible] Capt. Hutch[illegible] [illegible] and for this [illegible]

The Ship [illegible] Master, from [illegible] having struck on the [illegible] and tore her Stern in such a Manner, that she was with Difficulty kept above Water; but she has got into Port-Royal: Where, we hear, the Ranger, Capt. Evans, from Providence for this Port, is also put in.

Last Monday Morning about 1 o'Clock, a Fire broke out in the House of Mr Thomas Lining in Broad street; but by the timely Assistance of the Engines, it was extinguished before the Roof was entirely burnt.

The Unity, Clement Cowper, from Jamaica for this Port, is supposed to be taken by the French and carried into Cape François.

CHARLESTOWN, October 14.

OUR last Advices from New York, by Capt. [illegible] say, That on the 5th of August, in the Evening, General Winslow was to set off from Lake George, in a Sloop of 90 Tons, commanded by Capt. Smith, with 18 Swivel Guns, a Mortar and [illegible] Field Pieces, and 4 other Sloops of the same Burthen, mounting 10 Swivels each, having [illegible] Men on board, to drive the French from their advanced Post near Ticonderoga; that he was to be joined on the [illegible] of [illegible] by [illegible] more Men; the Whole [illegible] that a Trench, 12 Feet deep and 10 wide, was made round the whole Camp; some Volunteer Batteries erected, several Eagle Cannon mounted to scour the Trenches in Case of an Attack, and great Plenty of all Necessaries in the Army: But we can't agree with any Account that General Winslow is absolutely set off. — That the Accounts from Oswego, are more favourable than those hitherto published (not with Regard to the Behaviour of our People but of the French), viz. That some white People, who went from Albany in [illegible] about and got a View of Oswego (not being frightened by a [illegible] lay there two Nights) found the Forts and Houses entirely demolished, and every Thing that could be of Service to the Enemy carried away; But no Signs of Murder or Massacre, only 3 Graves, and those very handsomely done up, one of which in probability they judged to be Col. Mercer's: That, besides the vast Store of Provisions lodged there, there was about £. 30 000 Sterling, for the Pay of the Garrison and Troops that were designed to be employed on that Side: That the Besiegers were but little superior to the Besieged, and had no other Cannon than what they got at Fort Ontario: That as soon as Col. Mercer was killed, Lieut. Col. Littlehales (not Mac-Donald) immediately ordered the Place to be surrendered, no more than [illegible] Men of the whole Garison being then killed or wounded: That Com. B——y also behaved shamefully, not firing one Gun from his Vessels on the Enemy. — That on the 5th of Sept. a Sermon was delivered from a Pulpit in Boston, from Esther vii, 3d Clause of the 4th Verse, "For we are sold, I and my People, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish." Words that might justly be applied, if they were found in a Speech from a Throne. — That some of the New York Privateers were already returned from their Cruizes, with good Success, viz. The Harlequin, Capt. Keaton, with a large Schooner bound for Nantes, who had also engaged a French Privateer of 22 Guns: The Prince George, Capt. King, with a Ship and a Snow for Bourdeaux; who had also taken a Ship of 200 Tons for Bayonne: And the Earl of Halifax, Capt. [illegible], with a [illegible] [illegible] sugar, Coffee, Cotton, &c. — That a French Privateer had taken and carried 17 English Fishing Schooners into Louisbourg. — That the Reports of Commodore Holmes having taken a French Man of War, had prov'd to be Fisherman's News. — That among other English Vessels, the following have been taken by French Men of War, and carried into Cape François, viz.

The Sandwich, [illegible], from Honduras, for Bristol.
The Ann, [illegible].
The Sundry, Reed, from Cork, for St Kitt's.
The Warren, Butterfield, from Georgia for St. Croix.
The John & Nancy, [illegible], for Gambia.
The Mary Ann, [illegible].
The Polly, Carpenter, and
The Phoenix, Hix, from Rhode Island for Jamaica.
The Hound, Brown, from this Port for Ditto.
The William, Perkins, from N England for Ditto.

That the English Prisoners at the Cape, are all confined in a Prison, with Negroes: And, that a large Dutch Ship, [illegible] there, with a vast Quantity of Military Stores, and some grand Expedition was on Foot. — Most People in America (who are strangers to a great deal of what is transacted in Europe, and have always thought the British Navy formidable, and entertained contemptible Notions of that of the French) cannot be persuaded to believe, That a French Squadron has rode triumphantly before Minorca, and an English superior Fleet at the same Time in the Mediterranean: That French Men of War dare cruize off Antigua, Jamaica, &c. [illegible] of the Windward Passage: That there are [illegible] [illegible] at Brest, &c. to Martinico, Cape François, Louisbourg and Quebec, with Troops and warlike Stores: And they [illegible] of the Loss of Port Mahon and Oswego, as mere Fictions: [illegible]

[illegible] Advices to the 23d of [illegible] [illegible] Col. Armstrong, with [illegible] Men from Cumberland County, had given them a great Blow on the 8th of last Month, by marching to, and attacking their Town of Kittaning, on the Ohio, about 25 Miles from Fort Du Quesne, and burning it about their Ears: In this Action, near 40 Indians were killed, among them their famous Capt. Jacobs, their Town entirely destroyed, and in it a Store of Ammunition for a 10 Year's War with a large Present of Goods they had lately received from the French, and 11 English Prisoners retaken; Col. Armstrong, Capt. Mercer, Ensign Potter, and 11 private Men, were wounded; Lieut. Hogg, and 13 private Men killed. — And that, as Sir William Johnson, with the Six Nations, and the Government of Pennsylvania, were still labouring to bring about an Accommodation with the Susquehanna Indians, a Proclamation was issued by Governor Denny, for a farther Suspension of Hostilities on the East Side of Susquehanna River till the 20th Instant.

We have also Advices from Halifax, to the 3d ult. That several small French Prizes had lately been brought in there: That they had fitted, and were fitting out, 6 Privateers: And, that Capt. Hood, in His Majesty's Snow Jamaica, had taken a Schooner from Piscataqua, one Richard Kelvin Master, with a Lading at Louisbourg and standing in, by her Papers bound for Boston with Lumber, which had been somehow strangely metamorphosed into Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, and Provisions.

From Maryland, that they are fitting out a Ship there for a Privateer, of 26 Carriage and 20 Swivel Guns, to be commanded by Capt. Ezra Scott. And,

From Virginia, that 100 Cherokee's were daily expected there, to join in the Defence of the Frontiers, and to annoy the French.

Letters from Bermuda advise, that they have had some hard Gales of Wind there, which had destroyed most of the little Provisions they made: That on the 8th ult. Capt. Nathaniel Dennet, in a large Snow from Philadelphia, for Antigua, was cast away on their Rocks, and on the 11th, a Dutch Brigantine from Eustatia for Holland, only the Boatswain and a Negro saved: And that on the 20th Capt. Josiah Dickinson, in a Sloop from this Port for Antigua, had put in there, having lost her Mast, Boom and Bowsprit.

About 7 Weeks ago, the Sloop Elizabeth, John Smith Master, of and for New York, from the Bay of Honduras, foundered in the Gulph of Florida: The Crew got to St Katherine's in Georgia, in 4 Days, whence one of the Men is come, and gives this Account.

Monday last put in here, for Water and Sails, the Snow Hope, Christopher Brook Master, from Jamaica [illegible] Days before spoke with the [illegible] Capt. Hutchings, [illegible]

The Ship [illegible] [illegible], having struck on the [illegible] in such a Manner, that she was with Difficulty kept above Water; but she has got into Port-Royal: Where, we hear, the Ranger, Capt. Evans, from Providence for this Port, is also put in.

Last Monday Morning about 1 o'Clock, a Fire broke out in the House of Mr Thomas Lining in Broad Street; but by the timely Assistance of the Engines, it was extinguished before the Roof was entirely burnt.

The Unity, Clement Conyers, from Jamaica for this Port, is supposed to be taken by the French and carried into Cape François.
